

IDEA QUIZ #1

True or False?

Diverse students cannot be referred for special education services if they do not speak English.

IDEA Quiz #2

True or False?

Culturally diverse learners may be found to be eligible for special education.

IDEA Quiz #3

True or False?

A discrepancy between achievement and intellectual ability is a sign of a specific learning disability.

IDEA QUIZ #4

True or False?

Tests must be administered in the child's most proficient language.

IDEA QUIZ #5

True or False?

It is acceptable to use only non-verbal tests or the non-verbal portions of tests with language minority students during evaluation for special education services.

IDEA QUIZ #6

True or False?

For less common languages, it is appropriate for districts to allow a student's family member to act as an interpreter during testing.

IDEA Quiz #7

True or False?

With few exceptions, bilingual school psychologists are unnecessary in evaluating language minority students, particularly if a trained interpreter is used.

IDEA QUIZ #8

True or False?

Language minority students, regardless of disability, require English language development from a qualified teacher, even if they are placed in a special education class.

IDEA QUIZ #9

True or False?

Districts should ensure that a teacher with credentials to provide instruction to language minority students participate in every individualized education program proceeding involving these students.

IDEA QUIZ #10

True or False?

Special education teachers of LEP students are required to have training in second language acquisition or sheltering techniques.

IDEA Quiz #11

True or False?

Mainstreaming, where appropriate, is a requirement for LEP students in special education settings.

Please click the link below for the answers to the quiz

http://www.crosscultured.com/activities/IDEAquiz06_answers.pdf

